PURE CREAM BAKING POWDER

MOST PERFECT MADE

Prepared by a physician with special regard to health. No Ammonia, Lime or Alum.

New York.

This is to certify that I am well acquainted with a man fifty years of age, for many years a resident of this city, who has been at times extremely ill, but could not tell from what cause, unless it was worms. He told his attending physician his suspicions, but the physician at once ridiculed the idea and refused to attend him any longer. His son then mentioned Dr. C. McLane's Vermifuge, and asked him if he would take it, his reply was—I [illegible] take something to get relief or die.

[illegible] at once procured a bottle of Dr. C. McLane's Vermifuge, and he took one dose. The result was he passed upwards of three quarts of worms in every form. He got well immediately, [illegible] is now enjoying excellent health; and, like the good Samaritan of old, is endeavoring to relieve his unfortunate neighbors. He makes it his business to hunt up and select all cases similar to his own, that may be given over by regular physicians, and induces them to try Dr. C. McLane's Vermifuge. So far he has induced more than twenty persons to take the Vermifuge, and in every case with the most happy results. He is well satisfied that Dr. C. McLane's Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, is far superior to any other known remedy, and that if more generally known would not fail to save many valuable lives. For further particulars inquire of Mrs. Hardie, 114½ Cannon street, New York City.

The Union Pacific Assailed The Denver Strikers Resort to Violence An Injured Woman Takes a Terrible Revenge

LOUISVILLE, May [illegible]—The [illegible] day's [illegible] of the Louisville jockey club had a large and fashionable attendance at Churchill downs this afternoon. The weather was fine, though the track was a little dusty. The surprise of the day was the winning of the Louisville cup by the California horse Lucky B., who easily beat Swineys, the favorite.

First race, half mile, for 2-year-old maidens: Marmosset dashed out of the crowd at the finish and won handily. Miss Bowlin second, Mohunga third. Time, [illegible]. Paris mutuals: Marmosset straight $7[illegible], place $[illegible]. Miss Bowlin $[illegible].

DIRECTOR GENERAL BURKE'S LOSSES.

NEW YORK, May 18.—[Special.]—Announcement was made the other day that Major Burke had resigned his post as director general of the New Orleans exposition. It caused little surprise among those in a position to know the circumstances under which Burke was compelled to ask to be relieved of the onerous duties devolving upon the responsible head of such an undertaking. It has been known here for some time that the decision of the attorney general which declared that no part of the appropriation of $[illegible] made by congress at the last session could be used in payment of Louisiana creditors, would involve Major Burke in financial disaster, and this has come to pass. In December and January during the first days of the exposition Burke became personally responsible for debts contracted by the management to the amount of $[illegible]. It was expected the gate receipts would prove sufficient to cover the amount. This was not the case, however, and when the attorney general rendered his decision under which after the payment of every outside creditor about $[illegible] remains as an unexpended balance, holders of claims for which Burke became responsible looked to him for settlement of their demands. It is understood that he has surrendered both his own and his wife's property to satisfy these claims. Nothing remains of his fortune except his share in the Times-Democrat. [illegible] he is to devote his energy to that paper [illegible] resigned his place as director general [illegible] sympathy is expressed for Burke, [illegible] refused a pay of $[illegible] director general voted him by the managers of [illegible] to take stock for the same amount in the enterprise, afterwards giving such stock as a present to the Louisiana State Agricultural college.

POOR CROP PROSPECTS.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 18.—Reports received here from thirty-five counties in western Iowa, forty-six counties in eastern Nebraska, fifty-six counties in western Missouri and sixty-eight counties in Kansas, which is a solid territory of 400 miles north and south and 400 miles east and west, and which embraces the larger portion of the wheat belt, show that the wheat prospect in the counties of Iowa and Missouri is [illegible] per cent. less than the crop of last year, in Nebraska 60 per cent. and in Kansas [illegible] per cent. less. The delay in planting corn is twelve days in Iowa and Nebraska and twenty-two days in Kansas and Missouri. About one third of the corn crop [illegible] planted and half of it will have to be replanted. A noticeable fact is that corn is selling in this city for from forty to forty-three cents, while at several points in this state it sells for upwards of fifty cents. Farmers of this state look for an indifferent corn crop and as a consequence are holding old corn. It is safe to say that no more old corn will be sent from this state this year. William Sims, secretary of the state board of agriculture, reports that the present [illegible] at this time presents the worst wheat prospect known in ten years, not only in this state, but as far as his correspondence reaches.

OUR SEA COAST DEFENSES.

NEW YORK, May 18.—[Special.]—Lieutenant Griffin's exhibit of the utter inadequacy of our sea coast defense, even with the best torpedo system yet evolved, has awakened apparently deeper interest than usual in the subject. It is being widely discussed in the public journals, clubs and among capitalists and merchants. The Herald this morning gives the views of torpedo and ordnance officers here, who unanimously endorse Lieutenant Griffin's statement. The board of engineers composed of Generals Newton, Duane, Abbott and Comstock recommend for the defense of our harbor the thorough obstruction of the channels with mines and the protection of the latter by batteries armed with 100-ton guns, mounted with revolving turrets, on each side of the narrows.

TILDEN'S PASSION FOR RHUBARB PIE.

NEW YORK, May 18.—[Special.]—It is reported Samuel J. Tilden is in much better physical condition than for years past. People in his confidence say he spends considerable time on a manuscript of some nature which is believed to be his political memoirs. A recent visitor to Gramercy park, who talked with Tilden's cook, was informed by that person that the old gentleman had developed an inordinate fondness for pastry, of which rhubarb pie formed the principal feature. The plant contains properties that Tilden believes to have a wholesome effect on his system.

A THIRD TRIAL.

NEW YORK, May 18.—John Roach's dispatch boat Dolphin, which he built for the government, but which the government refused to accept unless it is able to make the speed required by contract, left this city this morning on a third trial trip. The engineers appointed by Secretary Whitney to inspect the vessel were the only persons on board besides Mr. Roach. The Dolphin will probably not return before to-morrow.

GENERAL GRANT'S CONDITION.

NEW YORK, May 18.—General Grant slept last night well and gained his usual amount of sleep. He did not experience any great pain last night, nor has he to-day. He rose between 8 and 9 o'clock to-day and is feeling comparatively bright and strong this morning. A mass of revised proof and new manuscript for the forthcoming book was taken to the publishers this morning. The general will do no work to-day.

AMERICAN CITIZEN RELEASED.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., May 18.—Rev. Mr. Onderdonk of St. James college to-day received a telegram from the state department at Washington stating that Secretary Bayard had been informed by the Ecuadorian minister that his government had released Julio R. Santos, an American citizen, about whose imprisonment there has been so much correspondence.

THE WINNEBAGO TROUBLE.

[illegible] Dak., May 18.—Governor Pierce has received a letter from President Cleveland regretting the necessity for enforcing the executive order for vacating the Winnebago reservation, and in the governor's asking settlers as a favor that they observe the provisions of the same so as to prevent trouble.

RAILROAD NOTES.

THE O. R. & N. LEASE.

NEW YORK, May 18.—[Special.]—There has been much talk in Wall street the last two or three days concerning the proposed leasing of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Co's lines by the Union Pacific and Northern Pacific railroad companies, and some very conflicting stories have been set afloat. Officers of the Union Pacific company have realized for some time that the company could not legally be a party to such a lease as was proposed. The matter was therefore adjusted on another basis, and full terms of the understanding will probably be made public to-morrow. The arrangement made, it is said, is satisfactory to both the Union Pacific and Northern Pacific companies. The lease of the Oregon Railway and Navigation [illegible] it is now understood will either be made jointly by the Northern Pacific and Oregon Short Line company, which is controlled by the Union Pacific, or by the Northern Pacific company alone with an amicable arrangement with the Union Pacific. Rental will be paid at the rate of [illegible] per cent. on the Oregon Railway and Navigation Co's stock for the first three years and [illegible] per cent afterward.

RIOT AT DENVER

The Striking Shopmen Resort to Violence—A Newspaper Incurs Their Displeasure

DENVER, May 18.—The shopmen's strike on the Denver and Rio Grande road assumed a very serious aspect to-day. In accordance with an announcement made at a strikers' meeting yesterday afternoon, at which several incendiary speeches were made, about 400 men and forty or fifty women assembled in the vicinity of the shops this morning. Several inflammatory speeches were made, songs sung and general demonstrations of defiance indulged in. One of the workmen, returning to work, was set upon by the crowd, knocked down, kicked and [illegible] about the face in a most brutal manner. Other workmen were escorted through the crowd by the aid of a posse of deputy United States marshals.

About 8 o'clock 300 or 400 of the strikers formed in line and marched to town. A halt was made in front of the office of the Rocky Mountain News, which had [illegible] to criticise the action of the [illegible] strikers, and to denounce some of their designs. [illegible] Fire copies of the News were [illegible] by the [illegible] and a pandemonium of cheers and yells of derision and defiance.

The crowd then proceeded up Sixteenth street. At Sheddle's [illegible] store a halt was made and the same programme gone through with. It appears Sheddle recently discharged a saleslady who belonged to the women's branch of the Knights of Labor organization without asking consent of the [illegible] Circulars commanding the [illegible] to boycott Sheddle's shop store and boycott the News were distributed everywhere.

Talks with a large number of the best citizens today prove that whatever sympathy the strikers may have [illegible] up to this time has been lost by the riotous conduct of this morning. No arrests have yet been made.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

AN INJURED WOMAN'S REVENGE.

[illegible], May 18.—[Special.]—An injured wife living here last night took a horrible revenge upon the paramour of her husband. Long suspecting his infidelity, Mrs. Maria Bruce tracked her husband to the house at No. 11 North Front street, kept by Miss Minnie Miger. Burning to revenge upon her unknown rival, Mrs. Bruce purchased a pint of oil of vitriol, which she poured into a beer glass. She then proceeded to Miger's house and learned that her husband was in a certain room on the second floor. Rushing upstairs she burst into the room, and discovered the guilty pair. In a rage Mrs. Bruce sprang forward and dashed the contents of the glass into the sleeping woman's face. With a shriek the victim rolled upon the floor, when Mrs. Bruce beat her on the head with the glass, knocking her victim senseless. When Mrs. Bruce threw the vitriol some of it splashed on Bruce's face, and he sprung up with a howl of pain. Upon seeing him in pain Mrs. Bruce burst into tears and implored his forgiveness, saying she did not intend to injure him. She then hurried out to get some sweet oil to relieve his sufferings. Mrs. Miger had regained consciousness, and her screams attracted the attention of the police, who took possession of the premises and arrested Mrs. Bruce upon her return with the oil. Mrs. Bruce is a very pretty young woman and very respectably connected. She is held at the central police station and is terribly exercised over her husband's injuries, but is thrown into a rage whenever Mrs. Miger's name is mentioned. Physicians who attended the latter have pronounced her injuries fatal. She is terribly burned about the head, shoulders and arms, her eyes being literally burned out. Bruce's injuries are painful but not serious.

A MURDERER LYNCHED.

LYNCHBURG, Va., May 18.—Great excitement is caused by the unprovoked murder of [illegible] by H. W. Terry at Liberty, which occurred Saturday. At [illegible] o'clock this morning a party of twenty disguised men gained possession of the jail by force and hanged the murderer. [illegible] was one of the most popular men in the county. Terry was a son of a prominent man in the state. The murderer is said to have been insane, but other cases recently tried in the state in which murderers were cleared on claims of insanity made the lynchers more determined to effect their purpose.

THE DEMAND FOR MAXWELL.

ST. LOUIS, May 18.—Papers on which to base the demand for the extradition of Maxwell, the murderer of Preller at the Southern hotel, who is now under arrest in Auckland, New Zealand, will be signed by Governor Marmaduke to-night and be forwarded at once to Washington. They will [illegible] by Detective Tracy of the police force [illegible] Frank [illegible] of the Post-Dispatch [illegible] state [illegible] under [illegible]

NEW ORLEANS, May 18.—Justice [illegible] read a lengthy opinion in the supreme court in the Ford case, in which every exception presented by the defense was overruled, and judgment of the lower court affirmed. The lower court sentenced Pat Ford and Murphy to be hanged, and "Judge" Ford, Caulfield and Buckley to twenty years imprisonment at hard labor.

Reported Release of Ayoub Khan on the Demand of Russia—Victor Hugo Dying Riel's Story of the Rebellion—Etc

LONDON, May 18.—The trial of Cunningham and Burton at the Old Bailey was brought to a conclusion to-day. The court room was crowded with people to hear the judge's charge and see the termination of the case. Among the notables present were the Lord Mayor and United States Minister Phelps. There were many ladies in the room. The prisoners were [illegible] anxious look and followed the judge's charge with intense interest. The drift of the charge was clearly against the prisoners. The judge began by explaining the nature of the charge against the prisoners and expounded the law on the subject. He then analyzed the evidence, calling the jury's attention to the fact that Burton's statement was not made under oath and therefore entitled to very little credence. If there was any truth in the statement, said the judge, it was astounding that no witness was called to support it. The judge drew attention to [illegible] the fact that Cunningham and Burton had frequently been seen together, and dwelt upon their connection with the trunk, what [illegible] told the [illegible] concerning it and [illegible] unsatisfactory information that Burton [illegible] to [illegible]

The jury then retired. They remained out not long, and then returned with a verdict of guilty against both prisoners. The court then sentenced them to penal servitude for life. The announcement of this sentence was received by the spectators with applause, which the court repressed. Mr. Phelps sat beside Justice Hawkins while he was sentencing Cunningham and Burton.

THE PRISONERS' CONDUCT.

Justice Hawkins, in charging the jury, said the [illegible] ably defended, and that their [illegible] fairly conducted. The bag and coat found at Charing Cross railway station had been [illegible] beyond question as the property of Burton. [illegible] statement, in which he admitted buying two bags at Southampton was inconsistent with the statement of the defense, which denied that Burton had been at Southampton at the time [illegible] bought bags. Burton's explanation of how he had come into possession of Cunningham's [illegible] was unsatisfactory. It was a remarkable circumstance that the person who both informed the [illegible] and [illegible] that [illegible] was [illegible] to the trunk and the other that he [illegible] to have the trunk taken away. The [illegible] of the case against Cunningham was his presence in the tower at the time of the explosion, coupled with the discovery of a detonator in his trunk.

In sentencing the prisoners, Justice Hawkins said they had been convicted of a crime as bad, wicked and cruel as had ever entered the heart of man. It could not be too well known that neither her majesty, the queen, nor her advisers could be intimidated by any such means. The humanity of those in charge of the prosecution alone prevented them from indicting the prisoners for high treason, on conviction for which their lives would have been forfeited. The prisoners were sentenced to penal servitude for life.

Cunningham maintained his self composure, but Burton broke down and sobbed when the verdict was rendered. When the prisoners were asked if they had anything to say why sentence of law should not be passed upon them, Cunningham protested that he was innocent. He said it was willing to accept penal servitude for life, but they could not touch his soul. Burton simply declared he was innocent.

THE DYNAMITE PLOTS.

LONDON, May 18.—The press association has issued a two-column statement by an American [illegible] details of the dynamite plots. Burton, it is stated, was one of the centers of the society called the Robert Emmett Association or Sons of Freedom. Each center directed a party of plotters, who were all known to each other. Therefore a party of men might be working in the same plot [illegible] unknown to each other. The chief of the society was not O'Donovan Rossa, but a man residing in Philadelphia. Burton, alias [illegible] has long been a friend of Rossa, [illegible] Burton was a constant visitor [illegible] of a [illegible] quadroon woman named Mayes [illegible] other parties were [illegible] complicated in this connection, which [illegible] [illegible] Burton to New York. A [illegible] having been [illegible] mysterious manner [illegible] quarreled with Rossa, and they have since been bitter enemies. Burton founded a society of avengers. It is believed Burton's motive throughout was not patriotic but pecuniary.

[illegible] brought to England. The [illegible] street explosion was done by an elder brother of Cunningham, resembling the latter, who escaped to America immediately after the explosion. Burton directed all the explosions except at the London bridge. [illegible] and [illegible] to blow up the tower. Cunningham only watched while the other man placed the explosive. The accomplice escaped before the fuse was consumed. Three men [illegible] the Westminster explosions, two of whom [illegible] the [illegible] explosives in their hoopskirts. All three escaped. The attempt to blow up the [illegible] memorial failed.

THE CZAR REPRIMANDS DEGIERS.

NEW YORK, May 18.—[Special.]—A special from St. Petersburg describes a scene between the czar and DeGiers. The czar sent an aide-de-camp to summon Degiers in hot haste to his presence. When the minister arrived the czar opened the conversation by saying, "Degiers, you have been promising far too much."

Degiers, embarrassed, replied: "Sire, my statement have been exaggerated in London."

The czar replied: "I shall never give up any single essential point, nor allow any reflection to be placed upon General Komaroff, who throughout has acted with discretion and moderation."

After this Degiers offered his resignation, which, however, thanks to the mediation of the empress, was not accepted. Degiers' position is rather shaky, but it is still firmly believed [illegible] that war has been averted.

A Russian officer just arrived from the seat of the disputed ground says: "Even at Kopet there is plenty of champagne and Pate de foie gras, and at Merv we have concerts and private theatricals. Altogether the Trans-Caucasus and Tikeke country are very pleasant places. Many officers have their wives and families there, society is amusing and there is much friendly [illegible] among the natives inhabitants."

REPORTED RELEASE OF AYOUB KHAN.

NEW YORK, May 18.—[Special.]—The Sun's cablegram from London says: A suggestion of further difficulty with Russia is furnished by the report that the Russian government has demanded of [illegible] from Persia the release of Ayoub Khan. This veteran intriguer and former ameer of Afghanistan was arrested early last month by the Shah at the solicitation of the British consul at Teheran, who had information that Ayoub was about to be employed by Russia to foment a rising against Ameer Abdurrahman, with a view of Ayoub's ultimately occupying the throne as a Russian tool. Ayoub has been detained as a semi-prisoner at Teheran since April 11, notwithstanding one or two mild protests by Russia. To-night's reports indicate that Russia has got tired of protesting, and being satisfied that England's complaisance will stretch to any limit, she has altered her tone to one of command. If it is true the Shah [illegible] released Ayoub upon a Russian demand, it is [illegible] as proving that British prestige among the [illegible] is crumbling.

THE CAPTURE OF RIEL.

Arrested by the Man he once Sentenced to be Shot.

CHICAGO, May 18.—[Special.]—As C. D. Boulton of the First National bank, read dispatches from the north and noted that Riel, the famous rebel, had surrendered, he remarked that this was a case of retributive justice, if ever there was one. Said he: "The dispatch says Riel surrendered to Major Boulton. This major is my brother, and he was captured by Riel and had a very narrow escape from death at the hands of the Indians. It was during the rebellion led by Riel in 1869. My brother had been up in that country a short time before with a surveying party. He had been an officer in the English army, and at the urgent request of settlers took charge of a deputation to visit the rebels at Winnipeg. He had a very satisfactory interview with Riel and under a guard furnished by the rebel chief left Winnipeg to return to his home at Portage la Prairie. They had only been conducted a short way from town when Riel sent a [illegible] party after them. They were arrested and returned [illegible], and Major Boulton and a Mr. Scott were placed in irons and sentenced to be shot. The Roman Catholic and Episcopal bishops interested themselves in the prisoners and urged upon Riel that they should be reprieved. The rebel chief was obdurate and refused to grant a reprieve. They were to be shot at midnight, and half an hour before that time the bishops left my brother, saying that all hope was gone and he must die. They, however, returned to Riel and made a further solicitation in the interest of mercy, and just five minutes before the hour fixed for the execution my brother was released on condition that he should leave the country and never return. Scott was shot. Ten years afterward, when the rebellion was over, my brother returned to that country and settled. When Riel again took up arms a few weeks ago my brother organized a company of [illegible] which is known as Boulton's Horse, and placed his services at the command of General Middleton. If the dispatches are correct Riel has surrendered to my brother's command, and he is now the prisoner of the man he treated so villainously sixteen years ago. If my brother had been captured by Riel instead of the reverse, he would undoubtedly have been shot."

RIEL'S STORY OF THE REBELLION.

CLARKE'S CROSSING, May 18.—Troops have crossed the Saskatchewan river and proceeded via Duck Lake to Prince Albert, which place they will probably reach to-day.

Riel's capture absorbs all other topics. Riel says Lawrence Clark of the Hudson Bay company precipitated the uprising. The half-breeds were celebrating the feast of St. Joseph when Clark arrived from Winnipeg. Clark first mocked them [illegible] them that 500 soldiers were [illegible] to join in the feast, and would give them all they wanted in the way of ceremony. [illegible] go back to their homes and abandon their nonsense. Riel was absent from Batoche at the time, and on his return found that his people were in arms and had determined to plunder the stores before the troops mentioned by Clark arrived. Riel denied that he was leader of the rebellion, and says he can prove he wanted to go back to the United States, but would not be allowed. He expects to be hanged and devotes the greater part of his time to fasting and prayer.

A courier reports to General Middleton that while on the way from Batoche to Prince Albert Wednesday he met three Indians twelve miles beyond Lapine's crossing. While talking to the Indians, Gabriel Dumont, Riel's lieutenant, appeared on the edge of a bluff and asked the courier what he wanted. The courier asked Dumont to give himself up, saying General Middleton promised him a fair trial. Dumont replied that he had arms, intended to fight and would not be taken alive. The rebel lieutenant with a few followers was last seen yesterday proceeding from a open prairie towards the ruins of Edmonton.

A BAD STATE OF AFFAIRS.

MONTREAL, May 18.—The Oblat fathers of this city have received a letter from Monsignor Grandin, bishop of Northwest territory, stating that [illegible] abomination and desolation prevail there. The clergy have lost control over the Indians and half breeds, who declare that the bishop and his priests have sold them to the government. Unless immediate relief is furnished, starvation and misery stare the ministry and half breeds in the face. None of them have done any seeding. They have slaughtered their domestic animals and are in a state of most abject poverty. He thinks at least $[illegible] should be sent for the purpose of providing them with food, clothing, and agricultural implements, and of establishing missions and schools in their midst.

AN ABRUPT [illegible]

LONDON, May 18.—A rupture has occurred in the negotiations for a commercial treaty between England and Spain.

LONDON, May 18.—In the house of commons this afternoon Lord Edmund Fitzmaurice, under foreign secretary, announced that the government regretted to inform the house that negotiations which had been carried on with Spain for a commercial treaty had terminated unsatisfactorily. The government the under secretary said could only consider the recent actions of Spain as a refusal to fulfill the fundamental conclusions of the declaration of the 21st of December, 1884. Sir R. D. Morrier, British minister to Madrid, had therefore been instructed to inform Spain that under the circumstances negotiations were at an end. Papers on the subject would be distributed. Lord Edmund said as soon as possible. The object of the negotiations now broken off was to obtain for England the most favored national treatment.

ANNOUNCEMENTS IN PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, May 18.—The minister of railways said no correspondence had passed between the government and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company with respect to a readjustment and arrangement of the loan of the government to that company. He said there was some private correspondence between himself and President Stephen, but arrangements for further aid had been made verbally.

Mr. Bowell said the finance minister before leaving for England had borrowed $[illegible] 000,000 to meet the expenses of the northwest expedition, and payments to the Canadian Pacific railway.

Sir John Macdonald said that certain irregularities in connection with land patents from the interior department were now being investigated, but it was not in the public interest to give further particulars.

ANTI-CATHOLIC DEMONSTRATION.

ST. JOHNS, May 18.—Sunday another anti-Roman Catholic demonstration occurred at Bay Roberts. The house of William Daley, leading Roman Catholic trader, was almost demolished. Some of Captain Bennett's property was flung over the wharf into the sea. Several Catholic boys and men were assaulted on their way to chapel. The judge of Harbor Grace imposed a money penalty on the Orange ringleaders.

TALK ABOUT SHERMAN AND BLAINE

Barclay Henley of California Striving to Prove that he is not an Alien—Some Authorities Quoted Against Him.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Admiral Jouett informs the navy department that the rebels having been forced to retreat from Carthagena, Barranquilla is the only point on the isthmus where they now hold possession.

Commander B. H. McCalla, who commanded the land forces of the navy on the isthmus during the recent trouble there, returned to Washington today. He reports the health of the men who remained as excellent. "The people of Panama were anxious for our forces to remain at that point, but when Aizpuru agreed in writing not to erect barriers in the city, we left. He could do nothing on the outside or inside, after his agreement. As long as Colombian troops remain on the isthmus," Commander McCalla says, "there will be no trouble. The cause of the recent revolution was the denuding the isthmus of national forces. There are a number of leaders like Prestan, though not so bright as he, who are ready to take advantage of the absence of troops. Every month the canal company take out a million and a half dollars to workmen there. Adventurers commit regular highway robbery whenever opportunity offers and take the money that has been paid to day laborers. Rum is the great evil. Great quantities are drunk after every pay day. Workmen and adventurers then engage in a war of words and end in the promiscuous use of fire arms. Prestan has gone to Carthagena. That place is besieged and I understood before leaving that it was running short of provisions. Eggs were selling at twenty cents apiece inside the place. Carthagena is a splendidly fortified city and contains probably 30,000 or 40,000 people."

SHERMAN AND BLAINE.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—[Special.]—The friends of Senator Sherman say he will retire from the Senate at the expiration of his term in anticipation of the Republican nomination for the presidency in 1888. Cold blooded and calculating as John Sherman is, it is said he is not wholly free from superstition common among public men—that no member of the senate can be elected to the presidency. Senator Sherman has been asked to accept the Republican nomination for the governorship of Ohio, next fall, but he is unwilling to take the chances of defeat, notwithstanding the fact that the prestige of victory would prove a strong impetus to his presidential boom. It is claimed that Sherman is the most popular republican in the state, and that his party can elect him if it is possible to elect any one, but the result is very doubtful and Sherman is too adroit a politician to risk it. It has been said that Blaine is willing to give Sherman the benefit of his influence for the presidential nomination in return for which Blaine will be given his old place as secretary of state if the ticket is successful. Blaine's friends indicate that this is nonsense. They say Blaine is too great a man to play second fiddle to John Sherman, or any one else. He will be a candidate himself in 1888, and no possible combination of circumstances, they assert, can defeat his nomination.

AN ILLINOIS MAN IN LUCK.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Walker, of Illinois, has received his formal appointment to take effect May 1st, as chief clerk of the general land office, to succeed J. Dempster Smith, resigned by request.

"A MAN WITHOUT A COUNTRY."

Barclay Henley Striving to Prove that he is not an Alien.

NEW YORK, May 18.—[Special.]—A special to the Tribune from Washington says Henley of California has begun already to make preparations for his defense before the house of representatives next December against the charge that he is not a citizen of the United States, and therefore not entitled to hold a seat in congress. It seems that the chief reliance of Henley at this time is the treaty of 1868 between the United States and Mexico, the fourth article of which provides that if a citizen of the United States naturalized in Mexico, renews his residence in the United States, without intent to return to Mexico he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization in Mexico. The article also provides that intent not to return may be held to exist when the person naturalized lives in the United States for more than two years. The identical provision quoted is found in treaties between the United States and several European countries. In the treaty of 1868 between the United States and Bavaria which contains the same provision, is appended a protocol explanatory of its meaning, in which is found the following:

Article IV shall only have this meaning: That the adopted country of an emigrant cannot prevent him from acquiring once more his former citizenship, but not that the state to which the emigrant originally belonged is bound to restore him to his original station. On the contrary a citizen naturalized abroad must first apply to be received back into his original country, in the manner prescribed by its laws and regulations, and must acquire citizenship anew exactly like any other alien.

SUPREME COURT DECISION.

This decision conveys in substance the same meaning as does a paragraph in the Trinidad case, by the supreme court of the United States, in May, 1831, in which Chief Justice Marshall expressed judgment of the court as follows:

"The individual who divests himself of the obligations of a citizen, if this be within the power of an individual, loses the rights which are connected with those obligations. He becomes an alien, and his lands, if he has any, are escheatable. He can not recover these rights by residence, but must go through that process which the laws prescribe for the naturalization of an alien born."

From these explanatory provisions and the judgment of the supreme court just quoted, it would appear that unless Henley can present some better evidence of his title to American citizenship than the fourth article of the treaty with Mexico, he stands in the position of a man who after having become a naturalized citizen or subject of a foreign government, has lost his adopted citizenship and has not taken any of the steps necessary to recover his original citizenship. In other words Congressman Henley seems not to be a citizen of any country whatever, but through neglect or inadvertence to have become a "man without a country." It is understood that a prominent western congressman who is a democrat and a good lawyer will oppose the admission of Henley to a seat in the house until the question of his eligibility shall have been tried and determined in his favor.

THE TRIBUNE'S COMMENT.

The Tribune says editorially: Barclay Henley, who wishes to be considered as congressman-elect from California, really seems to be a man without a country. He resigned his United States citizenship years ago and became a Mexican. Then he gave that country up, but it is by no means clear that he has since been naturalized under our laws. Legally speaking, he is an alien. He rests his claim to be an American upon a certain clause in a treaty between the United States and Mexico, but, according to the interpretation put on this same clause in other international agreements, both by protocol and judicial decision, it requires that a prodigal son like Henley must be naturalized again like any other man.

McCLELLAN TO BE REVIEWED.

General McClellan, in his war article in the May Century, says that Mr. Stanton, before he became secretary of war, was apparently his devoted friend, and that the secretary, when he entered the war office, said effusively (to McClellan): "Now you and I will save the country." McClellan's article would convey the impression that, had it not been for his favor toward Stanton, the latter would not have been appointed. This is followed by an accusation of duplicity and ingratitude on Stanton's part, in which the general tries to make it appear that the secretary thwarted and injured him in every way he could.

As McClellan has assumed the role of historian, together with that of critic of the actions of those with whom he was associated, he must expect to have every statement he makes carefully weighed. Stanton has been in his grave for years. Why McClellan did not choose to vindicate himself while Stanton was yet alive, can only be conjectured. The natural impulse of those smarting under a grievous wrong is to have the injustice corrected as speedily as possible, but McClellan, in waiting twenty years to set himself right, illustrates his proverbial deliberation in his movements.

Mr. J. W. Schuckers, of Philadelphia, is among the first to call Gen. McClellan to account for his surprising statements concerning Mr. Stanton. He asserts that Mr. Lincoln had determined on Mr. Stanton's appointment three months before it was made. Mr. Stanton was very impatient at the delay, and expressed himself in very strong terms regarding Mr. Lincoln, the administration and the republican party generally. He was finally appointed, however, not because he was a particular friend of General McClellan, but because he was thought to possess in a distinguished degree the qualities required, and also because Mr. Lincoln wished to placate the war democrats. His friendship for McClellan, if an element in the case at all, was the least consideration in making the appointment.

The impression which McClellan seeks to convey, that Stanton owed his appointment to him, Mr. Schuckers declares to be "absolutely without foundation." If McClellan is in error in this respect, then his conclusions about Mr. Stanton's duplicity and ingratitude need revision. It is preposterous to assume, as McClellan does, that he was the great military center around which the administration revolved in 1862, and that his plans were frustrated through the treachery of Stanton and the weakness of Lincoln, the very men who had professed such high admiration for his military skill.

It will take something more than the unsupported assertions of General McClellan to convince the American people that Lincoln was but a puppet in the hands of his war secretary, and that the latter was a plotting, envious schemer, destitute alike of honor and patriotism. Judge Kelley, of Philadelphia, and other distinguished gentlemen are preparing to show from the records that General McClellan has done injustice to both Lincoln and Stanton, and the controversy bids fair to place the newly-fledged historian in very hot water.

There never yet was a man who made a great military failure who did not stoutly maintain that he was the victim of some man's jealousy or malice, and General McClellan would have the world believe that Secretary Stanton not only deliberately lied to and betrayed him, but from the hour of his (Stanton's) appointment, labored to destroy all confidence between the president and the commander. It was Stanton who frustrated all his plans, forced the abandonment of the Peninsular campaign, and rendered impossible the suppression of the rebellion in the summer of 1862. And what was Stanton's motive for thus betraying his high trust and pouring out blood and treasure for two years longer? Simply the fear that McClellan would get the glory of ending the war! Will statements like these be accepted as historical truths? If so, then General McClellan has "vindicated" himself. But there is reason to believe that he will get no more laurels with the pen than he achieved with the sword.

DISCREET MODERATION

There seems no doubt that the local option law passed by the last legislature is defective. It is true that the courts have not yet passed upon the matter, but the case is so plain that a judicial determination is not necessary. As the law stands, a uniform license fee of $300 per year is fixed in all parts of the state, excepting in incorporated towns to which the legislature has given the right to regulate the liquor traffic within their limits. For violation of this law in its details, certain penalties are provided, but there is no penalty for selling liquor without license, so it will be seen the saloon keeper who takes out license takes also the burdens of a law which does not apply to his illicit fellow dealer. The blunder which leaves the law in this fix is to be regretted, but it was a natural one under the peculiar circumstances of the case, and no serious blame attaches to anybody. The effort to put an effective high license and local option law on the statute books was an honest one and the particular bill now found of no effect was examined and approved before its introduction by a score or more lawyers and others friendly to its purposes, who failed to detect the fatal point in it.

It has been expected that the saloon keepers of the country would use their accidental advantage in an offensive way, but it is to be said to their credit that they have taken precisely the opposite course. There are some exceptions, but their main body will act legally in the matter. Although they would be safe in selling without license from this time on till the law is remodeled, most of them, it is said, have voluntarily taken license for a year in advance under the old law, whose rate is $100 per year and which remains in force till the day after to-morrow. What they will do when the year expires is not yet known, but it is said by those who speak by authority that in no manner will the public sentiment which supports a license law be outraged.

There is some method in this course, for the temper of the next legislature toward the saloon men will be affected greatly by their present conduct. [illegible] naturally be in a frame of severity [illegible] laws on the statute books [illegible] the keeping open of saloons on Sunday and the selling of liquor to minors, which are practically dead letters, but if the liquor men were to use their opportunity [illegible] they would soon rouse a public sentiment which would put the now unenforced laws into effect. Their conduct in the present situation is wise as well as decent.

PREVALENCE OF ABORTION [illegible]

The arrest and confession of Dr. [illegible] Scott at San Francisco, with the [illegible] brought out by his preliminary trial have exposed the terrible fact that [illegible] is a common practice in that city. Doctors M'Al[illegible], [illegible] and other physicians of standing testified that they were asked almost daily to perform abortions and that they were never without patients whose [illegible] such operations at the hands of [illegible]. The practice is not, as might be supposed, confined to the [illegible] classes [illegible] unmarried women, who wish to escape the consequences of misleading. It is quite as common among wives who do not want to be mothers, and it involves every class of society. "There [illegible] of this latter class," said [illegible] who [illegible] importance [illegible] operations on the [illegible] refused and [illegible] professional [illegible] called upon all [illegible] have been almost ruined by these [illegible].

The looseness with which Dr. Scott pursued his calling and his long immunity in it, is a sufficient confirmation of this testimony. By his own confession he has devoted twenty years to this practice in San Jose and San Francisco. And he is but one of many who find occupation and profit in this hideous business in San Francisco.

There is too much cause to fear, Dr. Dennis declared, that abortion is becoming a common expedient all over the country. There are now ten crimes of this sort for every one ten years ago. Every city and almost every town has pretended medical practitioners ready to do this business. Hundreds of invalid women owe their miseries to murderous operations, and hundreds of children come into the world burdened with the heritage of sins committed by their mothers.

It is pretended that the exhibition at New Orleans is as great a thing as the Centennial in Philadelphia in 1876. It beats it—in getting money out of the United States treasury. Southern people don't attend the exhibition. They show no energy in anything but in making fraudulent majorities in elections. The largest receipts on any one day since the exposition was opened to the public was $11,000. At the Philadelphia centennial, which was far from being a financial success, the greatest single-day receipts were $118,678. The income at New Orleans on its single most successful day was only about half the average daily receipts of the whole exposition season at Philadelphia. Another significant thing is the fact that northern visitors have contributed most to the receipts of the New Orleans exposition. Few southern people have shown any interest in it, though a good many have done what they could toward fleecing the northern visitors by charging enormous prices for very poor accommodations. New Orleans papers admit that only a very small proportion of the population of their city has ever been inside the gates of the exposition.

---

The legislature of New York has passed a bill relating to canned goods, which is of interest to localities like our own, whose product in this line is large. It provides that each package shall be labeled with the name of the packer and the place where the goods were packed, together with the name of the wholesale dealer in that state who offers them for sale. This may put a check upon the custom which prevails in many places of labeling goods packed in one locality with the names of packers in another locality who furnish an superior article.

David Dudley Field says there are 860 superfluous words in every deed and 1240 in every mortgage and that the people of the state of New York pay every year $100,000 for the recording of superfluous words. The use of these unnecessary words is almost entirely a matter of habit. When these old forms were first used there were reasons which made the iteration necessary, but since the reasons no longer existed legal forms could be shortened without detriment to any one.

Max Muller has calculated that at the close of the next two centuries there will be in the world 53,370,000 people speaking the Italian language, 72,571,000 the French, 157,480,000 the German, 505,286,000 the Spanish and 1,837,286,153 the English.

WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR

HILLSBORO, May 18.

The Hillsboro fair grounds present a very lively scene, there being some fifteen horses already in training besides ten or twelve at Hillsboro. In addition to this there have been [illegible] stalls spoken for [illegible] the Hillsboro track. That will make, all told, some thirty five or forty horses that will be in attendance at the July fair here. The stallion stake race has filled with the following bona fide entries: J. H. Long enters Fred Hamilton; P. W. [illegible], Wonder; J. A. Porter, Orange Blossom; J. K. Fleck, Sheriff. These men [illegible] business and all have pledged themselves that the contest shall be an open and fair, the fastest horse to win. This contest will be very hot [illegible] honorable contest and owners are here warned that any unfair trickery will send them [illegible] off the track. [illegible] Kisbar [illegible]. Mr. Fleck says his horse is a new one here and he wants his patrons to see him in a contest with others and judge for themselves whether he is of any account or not.

It is just probable that a fine circus will be in attendance and certain that there will be one of the finest stock exhibitions of all classes that has ever been seen on the North Pacific, as breeders every where have determined to come and exhibit, and the people seem to be universally favorable to the celebration and say they have had a long blue spell and as abundant crops are assured they are going to jollify. In fact everything is propitious for a good and [illegible] time. [illegible]

[illegible]—New York Tribune.

A late issue of the New York Sun contains an editorial conspicuously double leaded, the tenor of which may be learned from the following terse and vigorous excerpt: "The inevitable day when a partisan shall be appointed for partisan reasons in succession to every republican officeholder is [illegible] unmolested, is only postponed for a time, till the mugwump dream of non partisan civil service is [illegible] far as ever from becoming a reality. In other words the [illegible] spoils system [illegible] bestowing the federal offices [illegible]

NOTES AND NEWS.

There [illegible] sixty three democrats in the [illegible] Indiana legislature [illegible] Washington [illegible] appointments. No wonder Mr. Hendricks moved over into New Jersey for the summer.

The Cincinnati Enquirer sees that the offices will fall far short of the demand and demands of the president that the queen of the May shall be turned out and a democrat appointed in her place.

THE CHILDS EXCURSION

Is not an "emigrant train," as suggested by one of my competitors. The cars are especially fitted up for the accommodation of this party free of any expense to myself, and parties who desire to go east May 20th are invited to examine the cars before purchasing tickets. They are open for inspection. The accommodations and terms offered by me are so far superior to those offered by my competitors that there is no comparison between them. Do not purchase your tickets until you have first examined the cars. Our tickets carry you in these cars to St. Paul, and are first-class in every respect from St. Paul to your destination and return to St. Paul—and from St. Paul back to Portland its east bound. Do not be misled by "emigrant rates to Chicago." We can give you same rates if you wish and far better accommodations for the money than any other line. Passengers can return at pleasure, receiving the same care and attention for their comfort and pleasure as on the trip east ward. Make no mistake and do not be misled by rival competitors who have not the facilities for offering the same accommodations. Will leave the 20th inst. Call and see me at once.

JOHN A. CHILD,
Corner Second and Morrison streets.

TWENTY FIVE DOLLARS REWARD.

I will pay twenty-five dollars reward for every round trip ticket from Portland to Chicago which is sold by Mr. Child on his proposed excursion—for $125 00 or less—which specifies that the holder is entitled to first-class accommodations either going or returning. This reward will be in addition to the purchase price of the ticket.

[illegible]

H. [illegible] who has just built himself a pretty cottage home in the suburbs of this city felt so pleased and satisfied with its appearance that he determined to have some photographs of it taken to send to friends at a distance just to let them know how snugly he was domiciled, and probably also to give them an idea of what good taste he had in the matter of home building. He accordingly sent a photographer ... to take a picture of his place yesterday. His better half desiring to make the picture as charming as possible, arrayed herself in a summer costume and disposed herself on the verandah in a bamboo settee, with a fan in one hand and the last new novel in the other, a picture of grace and elegant leisure. Just as the lady had satisfactorily placed herself, and the artist was trying to bring things to a focus, several tow-headed young urchins clambered on the fence in front of the lady and sat there grinning and happy. The lady roused herself and endeavored to drive the intruders away, but threats and persuasion failed to move them. They were bound to have their pictures "took" and "took" they were, to the lady's intense disgust.

ASKS A DIVORCE.—Henrietta Rahilly began a suit yesterday for a divorce from her husband J. P. Rahilly. The complaint sets up that they were married in Hartford, Connecticut, in 1871, and that after cruel and inhuman treatment he deserted her and she knew nothing of his whereabouts for seven years. She says she afterwards came to this city, whither she was followed by her husband, who had heard that plaintiff was heir to certain property of great value in England, and actuated by a spirit of avarice, and with the intent to defraud plaintiff out of said inheritance began making threats against the life and liberty of the plaintiff if plaintiff refused to return and live with him as his wife. She also asks for the possession of her child Matilda, aged 12 years. Mrs. Rahilly had been known in this city as Mrs. Isaac Thompson, the wife of a carpenter living in South Portland, until her former husband appeared and disclosed her identity.

WILL REMAIN AT HOME.—Owing to circumstances over which the Portland Cricket club have no control, they will not visit San Francisco this year. The circumstances are as follows: Last season the Portland cricketers wanted to get up a "three handed game" in which they, the Victorians and San Franciscans should take part. The latter agreed to come, provided the Portlanders would pay steamship fares. It was found after canvassing the city that only enough funds could be raised properly to entertain the British Columbian brethren, hence the home club could not afford to accept the terms offered by the San Franciscans. Our cricketers had no enclosed grounds, and it was all outlay and no income. This year the Portland club challenged the San Franciscans and offered to go below on the same terms proposed to them last year, viz: payment of steamship fares. The Californians declined to stand the expense, and "the snap is off."

NEW PASSENGER ELEVATOR.—One of the celebrated Otis passenger elevators has been ordered for the new building of the Portland savings bank, now being erected at the corner of Washington and Second streets. These elevators are in general use and have made possible the great office buildings and apartment houses, the height of which has so amazed people visiting New York of late years. In D. O. Mills's office building in that city 14,000 people are carried daily on six of these machines, while the total traffic on the Otis elevators of New York city exceeds one hundred millions per annum, more than that of the four elevated roads. It is said that no accident has ever happened to an Otis passenger elevator whereby a person was injured. The company has a branch in San Francisco and has lately appointed B. G. Whitehouse of the Portland Water Company as its representative in this city.

DELIRIUM FROM WHISKY.—There arrived here from St. Paul on Sunday a man named L. J. Cross who was apparently insane. He was sent over to St. Vincent's hospital by Dr. Rafferty of East Portland, with a request that he be taken care of for a few days. When he arrived at the hospital he seemed rational enough, but about 6 o'clock last evening he suddenly became delirious, jumped out of bed and struck one of the waiters with a heavy cane and in his frantic efforts to escape hurt another. It seems that he had been drinking heavily and was suffering from delirium tremens. He succeeded in reaching the street, where his antics attracted a crowd, who, however, kept at a respectful distance. At length two policemen arrived who quieted the delirious man and, after having dressed him took him to the city jail. A few days' absence from whisky will probably bring him to his senses.

BURGLARY AT SALEM.—That the capital city is infested by representatives of the light-fingered gentry has been evident for some time past. The latest exploit of theirs was the entrance of Hon. G. W. Gray's house on Sunday night last by means of a back window. The family was sleeping up stairs, with the exception of Mr. Gray, who, however, heard no unusual noises during the night. They succeeded in ransacking the house pretty thoroughly but did not make much of a haul after all. They carried away Mr. Gray's full suit, underclothes and all, and also a gold watch and chain, the property of Mrs. Gray. Bureau drawers were carried into the yard and examined, and a shotgun, the property of Tom Dairs, their colored servant, was also carried away but was afterwards found in the orchard. No clue has yet been secured of the intruders.

OVERLOADED WITH FRUIT.—A gentleman who visited Luelling's nursery yesterday reports that men are employed there in picking plums from the overloaded trees in order to preserve them from being broken down when the fruit has attained its growth. The crop of cherries is very large, but owing to the rain many of them are bursting open, which spoils them for market. A newfangled caterpillar has made havoc with the foliage of some of the pear trees, which will probably interfere with the maturing of the fruit. Insect pests are increasing in this state, some of them probably ... brought here on scions imported for grafting. It is to be feared that before many years we shall have wormy cherries, curculios in our plums, maggots in our raspberries and flies in our ointment. Let us hope that these things may remain at the east during our day and generation.

PASTOR TO BE INSTALLED.—The installation service of Rev. R. ... Laughlin as pastor of the St. John's Presbyterian church, located on the corner of Sixteenth and M streets, will take place this evening at 8 o'clock. The members of the Sunday school will be present and will open the service by singing a number of hymns, after which scripture will be read and prayer offered by Rev. W. O. Forbes. A hymn will then be sung, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. ... W. ... of Astoria. Rev. ... Ghormley, moderator, will then propound the usual constitutional questions both to the pastor and the people. A charge to the pastor will be delivered by Rev. E. J. Thompson of Salem and a charge to the people by Rev. E. T. Lee of Calvary Presbyterian church. Installation prayer will be offered by the moderator.

PAID FOR A COPY.—Several days ago a railroad official who has not lived very long in Oregon, wrote to the secretary of state asking for a copy of the Hoult railway bill. He supposed that there were stacks of printed copies lying around the state house, and that the secretary would be only too glad to get rid of surplus matter. Hence he was not a little surprised when he received a written copy, certified to as correct, and a bill for $11. He knows now what he ought to have known before, that when a man applies to headquarters, he is supposed to want an exact copy, and the only way the office can furnish it is to have one written. The railroader desired to learn only the general features of the bill, and is of the opinion now that he could have saved $10 ... by buying a copy of THE OREGONIAN containing the act in full.

FINELY FITTED UP.—So much has been said in regard to accommodations, privileges, etc., offered by J. A. Child for his special party of excursionists leaving here to-morrow for the east, that one of our reporters concluded to investigate the matter to satisfy his own curiosity. Hearing that the cars were fitted up and placed at East Portland for passengers to inspect before buying their tickets, the reporter examined the cars, and it must be admitted that Mr. Child's plan in fitting up Northern Pacific sleeping cars far surpasses anything ever seen here, and approaching a Pullman palace sleeping car, and could not help but commit ... and ... the traveling public.

... NOT BONDS.—The ... of New York, speaking of the proposed ... of the O. R. & N., says: "This company differs from most other new railroad companies in having most of its capital consist of stock instead of bonds. No less than $18,000,000 was paid in cash to provide for the railroad construction, after the first organization of the company by the consolidation of the Holladay steamer lines and a few short lines of railroads. This is why in its early days it has been able to pay dividends while other companies are satisfied to earn a small surplus over fixed charges."

[illegible] ... from Portland. All shippers from San Francisco to interior points on the O. R. & N. line will get the local rates which were in force January 1, 1885. There is a provision in the ... bill that the section against discrimination shall not apply to freights coming into Oregon from other states, and to freights shipped from Oregon to other states.

WORTH TO CHECK BAGGAGE.—Persons who are going east on either of the excursions to-morrow can save themselves a good deal of time and bother about their baggage if they leave orders with the U. C. & B. T. Co., ... and Stark streets, and have it checked from their residences direct to St. Paul, or to Council Bluffs. This, it should be remembered, is without extra expense, the charge being only the customary one for transfers from the dock to residences or hotels, and prompt delivery of baggage is certain.

MAKES A DIFFERENCE.—A drover who has just returned from a trip through eastern Oregon says that he was in Walla Walla on the Saturday before the rain began, and that the streets were almost deserted, and that everybody in town looked unhappy. Last Saturday he was there again, and the streets were crowded with farmers and their families, all smiling and happy, and shaking hands and congratulating each other. A few inches of rain more or less makes a great difference in the feelings of the independent farmer.

UNION PICNIC.—The Unitarian and Congregational Sunday schools will give their annual picnic at Falls City park, a short distance above Oregon City, on Saturday next, May 23. The park is a delightful spot overlooking the falls, and a stroll through Oregon City and inspection of the woolen mills will amply repay for making the trip. The steamer Lurline has been chartered, and music will accompany the excursion, so that a pleasant time will be assured all who attend.

Y. M. C. A.—The last of the members' course of lectures and entertainments for the present year came to a close last evening in Y. M. C. A. hall, with a lecture by President Ellis of Pacific university, entitled, "Fifteen years to A. D. 1900, or the young men of to-day at the opening of the 20th century." The lecturer was briefly introduced by Prof. Warren of the Portland high school. His address was full of good advice to young men, but it is to be regretted that there were not a greater number present on this occasion.

WELLS VS. NEFF.—Judge Stearns yesterday confirmed the report of the referee in the great case of Wells et al. vs. Neff et al., and disallowed all motions to the contrary. The report was in favor of the plaintiff and leaves the case just where it was two years ago, before defendant's attorneys began to allege all manner of frauds, which had to be disproved. The case now goes to the supreme court.

AFTER READY MONEY.—The gay and festive burglar who is plying his vocation in this city recently paid visits at night to the residence of Mrs. Anderson, on Eleventh, between Taylor and Salmon, of Charles Holman, corner of Tenth and Salmon, and of I. A. Strowbridge. Nothing of much value was taken, which leads to the belief that ready money is the only thing this thief cares to steal.

APPOINTED ADMINISTRATORS.—Messrs. D. P. Thompson and W. F. Burrell, executors of the estate of M. S. Burrell, deceased, were yesterday appointed administrators of the partnership property of the firm of Knapp, Burrell & Co. and empowered by the county court to sell said personal property at private sale. That portion belonging to the Burrell estate has been appraised at $352,665 89.

DELEGATE TO THE NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT.—George C. Sears has been chosen as a delegate to the national encampment of the G. A. R. which meets this summer at Portland, Maine. He will shortly leave for the east, taking with him his wife and his eldest daughter. They will make the trip an extended one through the principal eastern cities and to the national capital.

SOLD ON A FORECLOSURE.—Deputy Sheriff Withers yesterday sold upon a decree and foreclosure of a mortgage in the case of J. B. ... vs. Peter F. Mathiot and others, an undivided one-half interest in lots 7 and 8, block 257, corner of Alder and Tenth streets, upon which are four cottages, for $1005 58, the amount of the mortgage and interest.

EXCURSION.—Garfield Post, No. 1, G. A. R., will give a moonlight excursion Wednesday, May 27, to Vancouver, on the elegant new steamer Multnomah, and barge Cascades. The sociables of this post have always been elegant affairs, and the standing of this post is a sufficient guarantee that this will prove very enjoyable.

TO BE RAISED.—Captain Spencer of the steamer Salem has taken the contract to raise the sunken steamer City of Salem, and left yesterday for Rock island to commence operations. He took along his steamer, a snag puller, barges and a force of sixteen men and expects to complete the job in two or three days.

TRIAL TRIP.—Yesterday the new steamer Multnomah made her preliminary trial trip from the Willamette Iron Works dock to the mouth of the river and return. The time down was 1½ minutes, and everything worked smoothly. She will no doubt be the smartest boat of her size on the river.

HOME MADE WIGS.—In future the company at the Casino will be supplied with wigs manufactured at home, Mr. Wass, on Yamhill street, having contracted with the management to that end.

VERY IMPORTANT TO THE EXCURSIONISTS

Those going by the Gilman & Powers excursion over the Short Line to-morrow are reminded that they arrive at Council Bluffs on Sunday, and the Chicago and Northwestern railway is the only line that leaves for Chicago on that day. Be very particular and tell Mr. Maxwell when you purchase your tickets that you want them over the Chicago and Northwestern, in that way so that you are sure of going direct through to Chicago on that day. Call at my office, No. ... Washington street, for particulars.

W. H. MEAD, General Agent.

THE CHILDS EXCURSION

Is not an emigrant train as suggested by ... my competitors. The cars are ... specially fitted up for the accommodation of this party ... free of expense to myself and parties who desire to go east May 20th are invited to examine the cars before purchasing tickets. They are open to inspection. ... Do not purchase your tickets until you have examined the cars. ... tickets carry you in these cars to St. Paul ... from St. Paul to your destination and return ... [illegible] ... We can give you same rates if you wish and far better accommodations for the money than any other line. Passengers can return at pleasure receiving the same care and attention for their comfort and pleasure as on the trip eastward. Make no mistake and do not be misled by rival competitors who have not the facilities for offering the same accommodations. Will leave the 20th inst. Call and see me at once.

JOHN A. CHILD
Corner Second and Morrison streets.

The above article is certainly very self-contradictory. The peculiarity about it is, how can the same car that is used to carry the excursion eastbound be utilized or made available to carry them back from St. Paul to Portland, when it is agreed that passengers may return at pleasure? Is there not a possibility in this case that the car might be in Portland when wanted in St. Paul? The phrase alluded to seems to be very indefinite. Without further attempt to mislead, the promoters of the Child excursion might as well acknowledge their intentions and state facts, which are that unless the passenger pays $10 extra at St. Paul on return to secure first class privileges he or she will be obliged to crawl in an emigrant sleeper with the balance of the emigrants. Take the Oregon Short Line excursion, get as good accommodations and save yourselves from $9 to $... J. M. GILMAN, W. C. POWERS.

TO EXCURSIONISTS

Those contemplating going east on the excursions organizing to leave on the 20th will please bear in mind the fact that the old reliable Chicago and Northwestern railway—the famous Royal Route—is positively the shortest and finest line ... ticketed hundreds from this territory and they will all testify that I have the very ... before you purchase any tickets and learn my story.

THE STAGE.

... [illegible] ... "Virginius," ... by Fred. ... at the New Market theater last evening was a genuine feast. A fair audience was present and testified its appreciation of the efforts of the company by frequent outbursts of applause. "Virginius," though among the foremost of classical plays is of such sombre character, unenlivened by any touches of humor, save in the first act, that it requires an actor of the very highest order to sustain the interest throughout without producing a sense of fatigue, and that Mr. Warde is ... than ... his ... signal triumph of his art. It is with pleasure we note the rapid strides made by him since his visit to Portland last year and we believe we are justified in saying that no worthier successor of John McCullough in the robust school of acting treads the boards to-day. His rendering of "Virginius" last evening was smoother, more artistic and forceful than that of last year. Nothing could be more harmonious than the scene with Virginia, in the first act, when he lays open his heart and reads its ... the discovery ... and the rapid transition to fiery indignation at the outrage offered to his ... were finely portrayed and carried him ... in the Forum scene in the fourth act, when ... dumb deaf alike to the plea of fatherhood and justice he sees but one way to save her honor—by taking her life. Then burst that mighty ... as with the fatal plunge of the knife the soul of his virgin daughter escaped unstained, so fled his reason, ... by the tremendous ... Mr. Warde's acting in this ... was simply superb and defies criticism. It was natural, forcible in the highest degree and carried the audience by storm. The last act, most touching in the picture of the demented father seeking ... for his child ... the echoes of her voice in the ... listening for ... will remember ... footfall, beholding her form in the empty air, was a most artistic portrayal of dementia ... in the extreme. Miss Mittens Willett as Virginia, was the very picture of youthful innocence and to a natural ... she adds a ... of manner that leaves little to be desired. The character of Virginia is not one calling for any marked dramatic power, and we will have to see Miss Willett in a role more exacting before we can judge of her merits as an actress. Mr. Ransom's Icilius, though a little cold, was fairly well done, as were also the Appius Claudius of John ... Kellerd, Caius Claudius of F. F. Carrick, Dentatus of S. C. Dubois, Numitorius of John Duffy, Lucius of George ... Nash and Servia of Miss Kate Meek. "Virginius" again to-night. "Damon and Pythias" to-morrow night.

THE CASINO.—A good sized audience greeted the first production of "Olivette" at the Casino last night. With the exception of ... prompting, the piece went with a snap from the start and decidedly caught on where the "Bohemian Girl" left off. Louise Lester did more towards winning a place in the estimation of Portland's opera goers in this opera than she did in the three previous. She received merited applause in the second act, where she sang in ... the reluctant ... and ... was ... Her encore filled her again to the front. As a sailor boy Miss Lester looked bewitching, and again captivated the audience by the song "The Torpedo and the Whale." Miss Edgar was completely overwhelmed by the storm of applause that greeted her appearance as the Countess of Rousillon, and in the third act her singing elicited forth prolonged plaudits which nearly reached an ovation. Mr. Stevens bobbed up serenely and reminded his friends of the old Tivoli days. He sang well and acted the Des Ifs admirably. In Valentin Mr. Cates sustained his well earned place and sang the serenade in fine style. Mr. ... was at home in the role of Captain de Merrimac, and Mr. Viberga did well with Coquelicot. ### CAMPBELL UNDERNEATH

I would like to make a few remarks about what Mr. Campbell said of Charles Smith and James ... being on top. Mr. Campbell, as far as shanghaiing and kidnapping goes, I don't think ... about the 18th of last April did you not carry Charles Smith out to Mr. Goulding's, about twenty miles (as you say) in a carriage from town and did you not get there at night? And was he not drunk at the time and did you not have a bottle of whisky with you to give him to sober off on? And did not a lady say "No more whisky" and take the bottle and keep it? Did you not have Charles Smith to understand that he was not to sign no papers from me or anyone but yourself. Now what about kidnapping. What was your idea of carrying him away if you had an honorable case, like some thief that had done a crime? Did you not make another trip to get Charles to sign documents. Now Mr. Campbell the less said the better for you. I don't owe Charles Smith one dollar in the world. There are no dividends in this, and neither is there $150 in it ... [illegible] ... Yours,

JAMES ...

MONDAY [illegible]

Weather clouding during forenoon [illegible] later on. Trade matters [illegible] quiet, although a very fair business is passing.

The Minneapolis Miller of the 15th inst. [illegible]: Last week was again characterized by uniformly heavy work in the mills, they succeeding in pushing their production mark up another [illegible]. Eleven of the mills increased their output and seven showed a decrease, but in most of the former the change was very much more material than in the latter. The flour production [illegible] week ending May 9 was [illegible] bbls, against [illegible] bbls the preceding week and 100,200 bbls for the corresponding time in 1884. This is the heaviest output ever recorded by our mills. The present week, however, there is a tendency to curtail the production. Two mills of over 1000 bbls capacity are shut down for the week at least and rumors are current that others are intending to stop work soon. The flour market for some time [illegible] largely sustained by eastern trade [illegible] come to a standstill and millers that are out of orders prefer to shut down their mills and save their wheat, which they consider good property for future use, rather than make concessions in prices.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Past 48 hours: 580 ctls wheat, [illegible] bbls flour, [illegible] ctls oats, [illegible] ctls mill-stuff, [illegible] sks potatoes, [illegible] lbs wool, 2608 lbs hides, [illegible] cs eggs, 125 bxs fruit, [illegible] pkgs butter. Also [illegible] ctls wheat, [illegible]00 bbls flour, 500 ctls oats, 884 ctls barley, [illegible] lbs wool, [illegible] lbs hides from the [illegible] section.

WOOL RECEIPTS—J. McCraken & Co., 200; Kitching & B[illegible], [illegible]; Hecht Bros, [illegible]; Denny, Rice & Co, 41,234; Allen & Lewis, 116,800; H. Metzger, 6420; Christy & Wise, [illegible]; J. S. Wilse, [illegible]; Jacobs Bros, 12,670; Bissinger & Co, 12,380; [illegible] & Sperry, 11,240; Pope & Co, 16,760; Koshland Bros, 18,145; various, 3440 lbs.

IMPORTS—Per steamer Oregon include [illegible] 406 bbls, 75 bxs, [illegible] sks sugar, 5 bbls syrup, [illegible] bbls, [illegible] 240 sks coffee, [illegible] rice, 1,[illegible]00 sks salt, 100 pkgs tea, 20 cs, 17 kgs pickles, 10 sks beans, 440 cs canned goods, 100 [illegible] grease, 10 cs candles, 25 cs pearl barley, 10 cs creamtartar, 10 kgs, 4 cs sauce, 131 cs baking powder, [illegible] pkgs spice, [illegible] cs blue, [illegible] sks tapioca, [illegible] soap, 65 cs paste, [illegible] cs soda, 58 pkgs other groceries, 5 cs candy, 12 sks nuts, [illegible] cs crackers, [illegible] cs sardines, 2 cs figs, 30 bxs raisins, 10 sks, 60 bxs dried fruit, [illegible] bxs codfish, 15 cs honey, 11 cs cheese, [illegible] bbls sulphur, 50 bxs bananas, 4 cs limes, 40 sks cocoanuts, 60 sks onions, [illegible]00 bxs oranges, 106 sks potatoes, 76 cs lemons, 189 bxs fruit, 150 pkgs vegetables, [illegible] bags, [illegible] bls twine, [illegible] sks malt, [illegible] 19 bxs nails, 25 pkgs tobacco, 5 cs cigars.

FREIGHTS—The Haddingtonshire has been taken up by Sibson, Church & Co for grain loading, rate private, but understood to be 42s 6d [illegible] orders. Another iron is being negotiated for like voyage, shippers having bulk of cargo on wharf. The market is without particular strength at this time, but recent advices of better freights [illegible] west coast will stiffen futures.

WHEAT—Easier markets cabled from abroad. New York and Chicago are quiet, steady, being held up by the bear element which is working on crop reports. Locally there is little being done from day to day, yet exporters and millers are constantly securing new parcels without exciting great interest. Quotations are without change.

Minneapolis mail dates say: There are numerous false reports afloat regarding the crop area and seeding progress in the Minneapolis belt, in view of which it is well to reiterate that the best authorities still place the decrease in acreage at 10 per cent as compared with last year. As to seeding, the storm mentioned last week was quite general and prevailed several days so that seeding was delayed nearly a week, but the work will be entirely finished this week, making it earlier than usual and closing under most favorable conditions.

OATS—Quote choice feed at [illegible] and market steady. A higher figure was paid this morning for extra choice for shipment. The request is only fair.

FRUITS, VEGETABLES, ETC.—Imports of California moved very freely, but the time between arrival and placing on market hurt the sale of some sorts. New potatoes moved fairly at 1[illegible] and new onions sold quickly at 2½c, old Oregon being almost out. Tropical fruits sold steadily at old prices. Vegetables and small fruits are lower in some instances. Local strawberries sold well early in the day, but heavy supplies made selling difficult later on and the market closed weak at [illegible]. This berry is ripening very fast with clearing weather. We quote selling price of jobbers [illegible] local sorts. Oranges, $1 50@[illegible]; lemons, [illegible]; limes, $1 [illegible]; cocoanuts, [illegible]; bananas, [illegible]; cabbage, [illegible]; cauliflower, $1 [illegible]; celery, $1 [illegible]; green peas, 4c; string beans, [illegible]; gooseberries, [illegible]; strawberries, 4c; California cherries, $1 [illegible] per box; do tomatoes, [illegible]; do apricots, $1.

CHICKENS—Some held over Sunday and the market is in fair shape. Quote $[illegible]@4 [illegible].

EGGS—No improvement [illegible] for fresh.

WOOL—Receipts noted to-day are largely for outside account, but local houses are receiving more. A steady business is done within the range last quoted.

ASSOCIATED PRESS MARKETS.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Governments [illegible] unchanged except an advance in 4s and a [illegible] of [illegible] on currency 6s.

Stocks have been unusually active and at times feverish and somewhat irregular. With few exceptions prices this morning were [illegible] to [illegible] per cent higher than they closed Saturday, which was almost immediately succeeded by a decline of small fractions throughout the list, but after the first fifteen minutes a rally was started which continued until midday. The highest prices were generally reached about 1 o'clock. The market then became steady at the advance and so continued until the last hour, when it yielded materially, [illegible] early gains being lost in some cases, and finally closed weak at irregular prices. As compared with Saturday [illegible] only [illegible] per cent, and while the [illegible] of the market was resting at advanced [illegible] then rose on very large purchases to [illegible]. It was equally prominent, however, for the reaction that took place in the last hour, during which on heavy sales the bears drove the prices down to [illegible], which it closed at a net loss of [illegible] per cent. [illegible] Mail and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy are up [illegible] per cent, and Oregon Railway and Navigation and Omaha preferred each 1.

Sales of mining stocks were small during the forenoon. Little Chief sold at 2; Bulwer at [illegible]; Consolidated California and Virginia at $1 [illegible]; Rappahannock at 6, and Ontario at 24. In the afternoon Central Arizona sold at 10, Bulwer at 40, Horn Silver at $1 90, Little Chief at 2, Iron Silver at $1 40, and Plymouth at $[illegible].
